

Farm and Wilderness Program for Boys, 2012
Age 12-14
August 12-17

The Farm and Wilderness Summer Program is a week long learning experience for boys aged 12-14. The boys will spend the week getting acquainted with nature. They'll spend mornings and afternoons on the farm doing the chores that keep the farm running, including milking cows and goats, getting their hands dirty in the garden, and preparing the meals for themselves and their fellow campers. During the time in between farm chores, the boys will have the opportunity to become more comfortable with life in the woods. Campers will learn skills that were once necessary for survival, like building fires and shelters. They will also have a hand in completing a project to improve Sprout Creek Farm! The integration of farm chores and wilderness training will give boys the ability to appreciate and cooperate with nature, while gaining hands-on experience they won't be able to find in a classroom.
